Processing

The processing of Personal Data (e.g. collection, retrieval, use, storage or transmission) always requires a legal basis.

Legal basis

In accordance with the DPA and the GDPR, we have to have at least one of the following legal bases to process your Personal Data: i) you have given your consent, ii) the data is necessary for the fulfilment of a contract / pre-contractual measures, iii) the data is necessary for the fulfilment of a legal obligation, or iv) the data is necessary to protect our legitimate interests, provided that your interests are not overridden.

Processed Personal Data will be deleted as soon as the purpose of the processing has been achieved and there are no longer any legally required retention obligations.

DATA WE COLLECT

Provision and use of the website

When you call up and use our website, we collect the Personal Data that your browser automatically transmits to our server. This is technically necessary for us to display our website and to ensure its stability and security. In this sense, we collect the following data: i) IP address of the requesting computer, ii) Date and time of access, iii) name and URL of the file accessed, iv) website from which the access was made (referrer URL), v) browser used and, if applicable, the operating system of your computer as well as the name of your access provider. The legal basis is our legitimate interest.

The basis for processing is our legitimate interest and the initiation and/or fulfilment of a contract.

We use the open-source Content Management System (CMS) of WordPress.org to publish and maintain the created and edited content and texts on our website. This means that all content, texts, and contact data submitted to us are transferred to and stored on our Hostinger servers. The legal basis for this processing is our legitimate interest.
